To the

Men of Business

GENTLEMEN,

The several forms us'd in Trade and Commerce, all wrote in a plain easy & practical Running Hand without that Jett & formal roundness too commonly Taught, is realy still wanting, and a matter of such general Concern that it justly claims y^e^ regard of the Public; in consequence of which, & in some measure to supply that defect, the following pages, containing a select N^o^. of Receipts, Book Debts, Promissory Notes an Import, &c. are humbly presented as a Specimen for the readier dispatch of Business: these, with my Parallel lately published, making a concise System of Writing in Theory & Practice, are Submitted to your Judgment & candour, by

Gentlemen
